Training in Architectural Drawing.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

READ—

Public Works Secretary's Notes ending with No. D. 375, dated the 4th April 1919, submitting proposals for the training of a few Sub-Overseers and Draftsmen in Architectural Drawing.

ORDER No. P. W. 1135-39—E. 6031-35, DATED 2ND MAY 1919.

The question of training a certain number of subordinates of the Public Works Department in Architectural Drawing has been under consideration for some time past. After scrutinising the proposals submitted in that connection, the Public Works Secretary has recommended that two men (Sub-Overseers or Draftsmen) may be selected to undergo the requisite training for a period of one year in the Architect's Division and that the scheme itself may be sanctioned to be tried for a period of three years, until half-a-dozen subordinates are in a position to prepare Architectural Drawings under instructions.

2. Government are pleased to sanction the proposal, with effect from 1st July 1919, and to direct that two subordinates, who have aptitude for Architectural Drawing, be selected every year, one to work under the Architectural Executive Engineer and the other under the Architectural Assistant.

3. The pay of the men deputed on training should be met from the provision made for the purpose in the statement of temporary establishment sanctioned every year.

Correspondence ending with letter dated 24th March 1919, from Pradhana Siromani T. Ananda Rao, Esq., B.A., C.I.E., offering to transfer to the Government of Mysore, Promissory Notes of the Government of India of the face value of Rs. 6,700 and carrying interest at 3½ per cent in trust as an endowment for the benefit of the Srinivasa Mandiram and Charities in Bangalore City and called "The Sundara Bai Endowment Fund."

ORDER No. 3583-88—MUZ. 475-18-4, DATED 17TH MAY 1919.

The Government are pleased to accept the trust to be created for the benefit of the Srinivasa Mandiram and Charities; and in so doing they desire to convey to Pradhana Siromani Mr. T. Ananda Rao their appreciation of the generous nature of the help offered by him to a useful institution. The Promissory Notes may be sent to the Comptroller endorsed as payable to the Dewan. The fund will be known as "The Sundara Bai Endowment Fund."

2. It is the donor's desire that the income should be distributed among the four sections of the institution, viz., Srinivasa Devaru temple, Orphanage, Free Reading Room and Library and Ladies' Section in such proportions as may be determined by the Managing Committee and that payment should be made in two equal instalments preferably in June and December along with Government grants to the institution. The Committee will take steps accordingly once every half year, for the distribution of the income of the endowment fund to the different sections of the institution. Their resolution to this effect together with a bill for the accrued interest should be forwarded to the Comptroller in time.
